Dogs have never been used in the Valley for tracking criminals, but officers expressed the opinion that they would prove very valuable, especially when the criminals get into the brush The oponion was expressed that if dogs could have been secured within a few hours after the recent attack upon the Ehlers family near Rio Hondo by a Mexican who has thus far evaded arrest, the capture could have been easily effected. Rio Hondo people believe the Mexican succeeded in getting into the brush east of that community, and probably made his way through the back ' country around to the river and escap-

"There have been several murders and assaults in Cameron county in the past two years in which the perpetrators have not been brought to justice through the inability of officers to track them after they reach the chaparral," a member of the Sheriff's force stated. "In a number of cases the criminals have reached the river and escaped into Mexico while the officers pursued the quest on this side, often for days or weeks. With good dogs we should have little trouble in following a criminal through the brush, and if he makes his escape into Mexico we will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that he got across."

SAYS OFFENDING KLANSMEN SHOULD PUNISHMENT

(Ry The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 27.-Hiram Wesley Evans, imperial wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan declared today he was watching with interest the situation in Brooklyn, where it is alleged that members of the Klan were alleged to have had blackjacks and liquor in their possession. If these charges should be proved, he said, then each Klansman should be punished like any other citizen.

(By The Associate ! Press.) LAUSANNE, Jan. 27 .- The policy of the open door in Turkey as advocated by the United States at the Near East conference was ratified by the allies tonight in the form of a declaration read by M. Bompard to the conference declaring that Turkey was not obligated to follow the advice of the council on the Otteman debt in the matter on concessions in Turkey.

Turkey under her own responsibility, the declaration said, maintains all her liberties and the principle of the open door remains always that which should exist in Turkey in all economic questions.
